

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

JAMES ST.LOUIS,

PLAINTIFF,

v.

LT. CHERYL MORRIS, et al.,

DEFENDANT.

C.A. 06-236-SLR

JURY TRIAL REQUESTED

PLAINTIFF MOTION TO COMPEL COUSELOR THOMPSON AND THE COUNSELORS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE CORRECTIONAL CENTER

The plaintiff asks this Court to compel the records of the plaintiff to be released to him for the presentation of evidence included within for the following reasons:

1. Information requested has been requested before by the plaintiff but has been ignored by the counselors.(see ex. A)
2. Information included does not cause a loss of security.
3. Information asked for is essential to plaintiff's case as it shows how plaintiff has co-operated with prison officials at all stages of his incarceration and is important evidence to be presented to the jury.
4. Defendant's attorney believes this information is as importance or it would not have asked about plaintiff's other charges or incarcerations when presenting discovery; referring to plaintiff's reputation.
5. Within plaintiff's records are his awards and certificates of completion showing plaintiff's co-operation with authority and needs to be brought to the jury attention seeing this case rest on truth of two individuals and the jury needs to see all the evidence.
